

Social care partners have also been included in an ICS-funded mentoring programme established with Derby University for the healthcare workforce. Under the programme,

